Dear Judge Hummel:

I received from Louise Meanwell, plaintiff in this action, the following email at 11:05 a.m. today:

I
Keith;

What do you think I should do? I cannot get to Albany NY. I do not own a car, my mother is away on business, I live 175 miles away. I cannot afford a flight (I am not allowed to fly anyhow due to the ankle monitor I am wearing).... There is no public transportation from where I live close by. Even if I were able to do it. There is no way that I could be in Albany NY for 9a.m. I would have to catch a bus from to NYC then a train to Albany which would take 5.5 hours and I also do not have the funds for that. Do you have any thoughts? I also have to gain permission to be out of my geographical area from a number of different entities/individuals due to my other situation. What do you think we should do? Could we possibly adjourn it? My mother will be back on Saturday. Any day other than June 24th as I have a hearing in NYC that day.

Please let me know.

Louise.

In light of the above, I respectfully request an adjournment to allow her to attend.
